

National Association of McNair Scholars Programs Directors Initiative

Building Community of Professionals

Juan Francisco Esteva Martinez

Mission

- NAAMSPD is a national organization provides directors and staff working for the McNair Scholar Programs a space to build community, promote professional development and coordinate activities that further the personal and professional well-being of its members

Activities

- Advocacy: engage at the institutional, regional, and national level to further the educational and professional opportunities for McNair Programs, staff and scholars.
 - COE Affiliate
 - AEEE, ASPIRE, CAEOP, EOA, MEAEOPP, NAEOP, NEOA, SAEOPP, SWASAP, WESTOP
 - Representation and Leadership in Professional Associations to further the interest of McNair Scholars
 - Deans, Presidents and Chancellors Associations

Activities

- Advocacy: engage at the institutional, regional, and national level to further the educational opportunities for McNair Programs, staff and scholars.
 - Develop Literature, studies and materials to promote our programs
 - Listserv
 - Websites
 - Social Media Presence
 - Representation and Leadership
 - AEEE, ASPIRE, CAEOP, EOA, MEAEOPP, NAEOP, NEOA, SAEOPP, SWASAP, WESTOP

Activities

- Provide Professional Development Opportunities to McNair Scholars Directors
 - Trainings
 - McNair Promising Practices Institute
 - Well-being
- Coordinate the Annual National McNair Scholars Symposium
 - Rotational
 - In conjunction with regional CEO affiliated associations

Activities

- Engage the private sector to raise fund for McNair Activities
 - GRE
 - Supplemental Stipends
 - Internships
 - Jobs
- Explore ways to provide meaningful international academic experiences to our McNair Scholars and Staff
 - Research Projects
 - International Conferences

THANK YOU